DESCRIPTION

Spacious, energy-efficient house with city garden and possibilities for liberal professions

Looking for an energy-efficient home with lots of space and possibilities? This centrally located house in Turnhout is within walking distance of the pleasant city center and offers a smooth connection to the main access roads.

The house has a generous living area and is ideal for those who want a practice at home, need extra bedrooms or are looking for a hobby room. On the ground floor there is a multifunctional room that can easily be set up as one or two bedrooms, an office space or even an independent living unit for a parent or growing teenager. There is also a practical storage room and a spacious laundry room.

The city garden is maintenance-friendly with a combination of artificial grass and paving. The covered terrace forms a pleasant outdoor space that continues to an open, covered storage room at the back of the garden. This can be perfectly furnished as a garden house or an attractive lounge area.

On the first floor you enter the bright living space via the staircase. Here you will find a spacious living room that flows seamlessly into the cozy and fully equipped kitchen. The kitchen has an open connection to the terrace and offers the possibility to provide an extra staircase to the garden. The bathroom is also located on this floor and can be refreshed to your own taste.

The top floor houses two particularly spacious bedrooms, ideal for those who love comfort and tranquility. In addition, the house is equipped with 8 solar panels, which contributes to a lower energy bill.

Pros:

- + Centrally located, close to the center of Turnhout
- + Energy-efficient house with solar panels
- + Possibility of liberal profession or extra bedrooms on the ground floor
- + Low-maintenance city garden with covered terrace
- + Spacious living room with open kitchen
