DESCRIPTION

Spacious, Energy-Efficient Family Home with Studio and City Garden

Located in a central area on the outskirts of Turnhout, this solidly built and exceptionally spacious family home offers numerous advantages. With its integrated garage, separate studio, and green city garden, this property presents a rare combination of space, comfort, and versatility.

The entrance hall, featuring a guest toilet, connects directly to the integrated garage. The ground floor also includes two generously sized bedrooms, as well as an additional room currently used as a third bedroom. A practical bathroom completes this level. At the rear, you'll enjoy a pleasant, green city garden—an unexpected oasis in this urban location.

A stylish natural stone staircase leads you to the main living floor. Here, you'll find a spacious and light-filled living room with a solid oak floor and a cozy fireplace as the centerpiece. Adjacent is a high-quality veranda, currently used as a bedroom, which could just as easily serve as a home office, playroom, or hobby space. The kitchen also opens onto the veranda, providing a seamless indoor-outdoor connection.

The highlight of the home is the fully equipped studio on the top floor. Accessed by a fixed staircase, the studio features a neat kitchen, separate bedroom, and private bathroom. Perfect for live-in parents, a teenager seeking independence, or even a home office or practice space.

With a favorable EPC rating, fully approved electrical inspection, and an asbestos-safe certificate, this property is also technically up to standard. A unique opportunity for those seeking a multifunctional home in a prime Turnhout location!
